

UPM's Faculty of Forestry graduates receive STA awards

KUCHING: Two students from the Faculty of Forestry in Universiti Putra Malaysia (UPM) were recently awarded the STA Prizes from Sarawak Timber Association (STA).

Mohd Fauzan Mison, who graduated with a Bachelor of Forestry Science, received the STA Prize for the Best Graduating Student.

Another student, Nur Fatin Yahya - who studied Bachelor of Wood Science and Technology programme - clinched the STA Best Final Year Project Paper for her project paper entitled 'Strength Performance of Concrete Beams Reinforced with Different Types of Jointed Wood'.

In a statement issued here, STA Mutual Sdn Bhd said it has been providing scholarships to students pursuing degree programmes in the Faculty of Forestry in UPM and the Faculty of Resource Science and Technology, Universiti Malaysia Sarawak (Unimas).

Also stand to benefit from these awards are students from the Diploma programme offered by the School of Engineering, Swinburne University of Technology Sarawak and Curtin University of Technology Sarawak.

Mohd Fauzan Mison

Nur Fatin Yahya

For more information on scholarships offered to students studying in the above universities, contact Thresa Aji at 082- 332 222 or email thresa@sta.org.my.